

Kinesiology New South Wales invites you to be part of the 26th Australian Kinesiology Association National Conference

The Power & Simplicity of Kinesiology

18th, 19th, 20th September 2009
Mercure Hotel, George St. Sydney

DON'T LEAVE IT TO THE LAST MINUTE! MAKE A COMMITMENT TO SUPPORT KINESIOLOGY AND YOURSELF AND REGISTER NOW!

Being in a room filled with Kinesiologists is a very powerful and enriching experience and inspires you to continue the work you are doing; as a practitioner, instructor and/or student. So take a few days out of your busy life this September and be a part of the 26th National Kinesiology Conference. You will meet new friends, catch up with the regulars and have a great weekend.

Kinesiology continues to evolve with new techniques and modalities, however it remains simple to do and is powerful in its results. Hence the theme for this year's conference.

Matthew Thie, son of Touch For Health founder, John Thie, will give an opening address (via audio visual) and thus begins a weekend of learning and enjoyment.

The full conference package includes Friday night opening/cocktail function, Saturday/Sunday lectures all morning/afternoon teas, lunches and Saturday night dinner with music and dancing.

First time delegates are again being offered a special deal as an incentive to attend (see page 4).

Mercure Hotel is centrally located, easily accessible by public transport and convenient for interstate and local visitors. Ibis World Square Hotel (Mercure's sister hotel), is 10 minutes walk from Mercure, and is offering cheaper accommodation rates. To take advantage of best rates for either hotel, you need to book by March 31st. After this date, rates increase. Delegates need to reserve their own accommodation via the contact details below.

*Trade Tables are available. Enquire for details.

* Pre/Post conference workshops - contact your local association or 'In Touch' Editor to advertise.
